Spa Therapy

Can we suggest a bit of pampering at the Namale Spa? It is the #1 spa in Fiji. You can choose from the Savasava Facial treatment, signature Ultimate Fusion treatment or the traditional Fijian bobo (pronounced bom-boh). Whatever you choose, you can expect to drift away into a euphoric cloud of blissfulness and pampering.

Cocktails, Meke & Dinner

As is the norm, you can expect to mix with our other guests for pre-dinner drinks. We have arranged for a traditional meke (pronounced meh-keh) performance. The Fijian language was never a written language until the European settlers came to Fiji in the late 1800's. As such, the history and stories of our people have also been passed on from one generation to another by chants, songs and dances. We have arranged for the people of Naidi Village to share with you a bit of their very unique history.

Following this, you can expect a 5-course dinner to be served from the Bure Levu dining room.
