

A Heavenly Stay at Jade Mountain St. Lucia

One can't help but compare Jade Mountain to heaven. The ultra-luxury retreat sits high on a lofty perch on the 600-acre Anse Chastanet resort overlooking St. Lucia's awe-inspiring, World Heritage Piton mountains. Jade Mountain is the only hotel in St. Lucia with a helipad and arriving by helicopter affords us a spectacular first introduction to St. Lucia's stunning lush tropical beauty from above.

— LUXURY TRAVEL NEWS —

Tips for multigenerational travel on the Amalfi Coast

In recent years, multigenerational (or multigen) travel has emerged as one of the top travel trends among Americans - spanning two, three and even four generations - and luxury villas are a great way to accommodate family members across the entire age spectrum.

Contact Now

A Private Escape to Villa Bluff House, Barbados

Villa Bluff House is a magnificent six bedroom Bajan Palace in Barbados, located a short walk from the legendary beach paradise of Sandy Lane. This luxury private villa property and its wonderfully sprawling design are complemented by the careful expansion and renovation of the main complex.

Contact Now

Why the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge Chose Skiing for their Family Break

Unless you're on a self-imposed social media ban, you'll probably have seen the photos of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge's first big family holiday last winter. That's right; Kate and William took two-year-old Prince George and ten-month-old Princess Charlotte on a European ski trip - and, as ever, someone was there to capture the event.

Contact Now

Small Luxury Hotels of the World Announces the SLH Awards 2017 Winners

Small Luxury Hotels of the World has announced Dormy House Hotel in the Cotswolds, UK, as Hotel of the Year at the SLH Awards 2017. Described as 'very nearly perfect', it is one of thirteen hotels in SLH's 500-strong portfolio of independently minded hotels that were honored with awards at the luxury brand's International Conference in California last week.

Contact Now

Where to go after Maria and Irma

Over the last few weeks, six tropical storms and seven hurricanes have ravaged the Caribbean causing widespread damage that could take months if not years to repair. On the heels of these natural disasters, many travelers have been left searching for alternative options to their favorite Caribbean vacation destinations. Here are a few excellent options.

Contact Now

Time to Update Your Wardrobe with The Reset

When the seasons shift, it's the perfect opportunity to take stock. Simplify. Get rid of the stuff that doesn't serve you, and surround yourself with things that make you feel amazing. Your wardrobe is an excellent place to start.

Contact Now

Radhika Khanijo
Private Travel Designer, Founder & Managing Director

